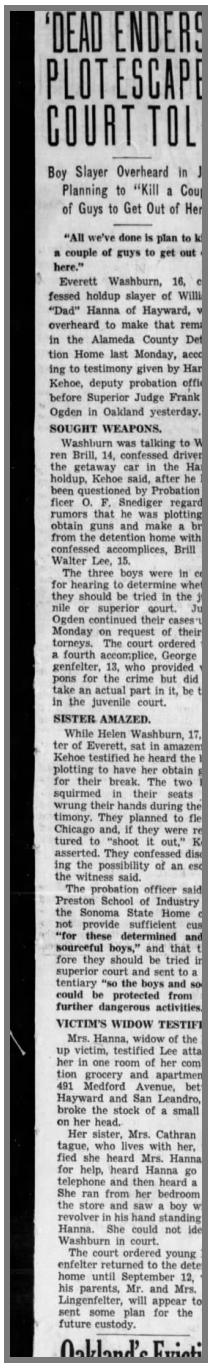
Newspapers by ancestry
https://www.newspapers.com/image/458358421

Downloaded on Apr 20, 2021



'DEAD ENDERS' PLOT ESCAPE COURT TOL

Boy Slayer Overheard in J Planning to "Kill a Cou of Guys to Get Out of Her

"All we've done is plan to k a couple of guys to get out here."

Everett Washburn, 16, c fessed holdup slayer of Willi "Dad" Hanna of Hayward, v overheard to make that rem in the Alameda County Det tion Home last Monday, acc ing to testimony given by Har Kehoe, deputy probation offi before Superior Judge Frank Ogden in Oakland yesterday.

SOUGHT WEAPONS.

Washburn was talking to W ren Brill, 14, confessed driver the getaway car in the Ha holdup, Kehoe said, after he been questioned by Probation ficer O. F. Snediger regard rumors that he was plotting obtain guns and make a br from the detention home with confessed accomplices, Brill Walter Lee, 15.

The three boys were in c for hearing to determine whe they should be tried in the j nile or superior court. Ju Ogden continued their cases Monday on request of their torneys. The court ordered a fourth accomplice, George genfelter, 13, who provided pons for the crime but did take an actual part in it, be in the juvenile court.

SISTER AMAZED.

While Helen Washburn, 17, ter of Everett, sat in amazem Kehoe testified he heard the plotting to have her obtain for their break. The two squirmed in their seats wrung their hands during the timony. They planned to fle Chicago and, if they were re tured to "shoot it out," K asserted. They confessed dis ing the possibility of an esc the witness said.

The probation officer said Preston School of Industry the Sonoma State Home c not provide sufficient cus "for these determined and sourceful boys," and that t fore they should be tried i superior court and sent to a tentiary "so the boys and so could be protected from further dangerous activities.

VICTIM'S WIDOW TESTIFI

Mrs. Hanna, widow of the up victim, testified Lee atta her in one room of her com tion grocery and apartmen 491 Medford Avenue, bet Hayward and San Leandro, broke the stock of a small on her head.

Her sister, Mrs. Cathran tague, who lives with her, fied she heard Mrs. Hanna for help, heard Hanna go telephone and then heard a She ran from her bedroom the store and saw a boy w revolver in his hand standing Hanna. She could not ide Washburn in court.

The court ordered young enfelter returned to the dete home until September 12, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lingenfelter, will appear to sent some plan for the future custody.

Oakland's Existi

Copyright © 2021 Newspapers.com. All Rights Reserved.
Powered by Newspapers.com